RURAL MANUAL

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Whilst the author has full confidence in the information and advice contained in this Manual, no warranty, guarantee or holding out, either expressed or implied, is given and persons or companies acting, or refraining from acting, on the basis of this information or advice, do so on their own responsibility.

NOTE: This Manual is sold strictly on the explicit understanding that the Invoiced party will not on-sell, loan or provide it, or a copy of it, to any other party, and will be in breach of our terms and conditions of sale should they do so, rendering them liable under the laws of NSW to court action for breach of contract. Furthermore, any party using the Manual that is not a member of the staff of the invoiced party at the place of business as shown on this Invoice will also be liable for action to be taken against them for theft of Auswide's intellectual property.

The manual should be used as follows to ensure best practice, compliance with State/Territory requirements and office protocols:

- 1. The principal/licencee-in-charge should read the text and make whatever changes necessary to ensure that the amended edition for the office is exactly what they require.
- 2. Staff such as the sales and property managers should assist in providing input to changes and additional information.
- 3. Staff should then be required to read the procedures/sections that impact on their work and seek clarity and understanding on all issues by exchange of questions and answers. They will then need to "sign off" on the sections of the manual that affect them. This will work to achieve their commitment to complying with the procedures, and also to reduce the risk of litigation and fines, etc to the office if they act outside their stipulated procedures. A Form similar to the one at Form 27 should be used and a copy retained by the office and the staff member.
- 4. Policies and procedures need to be in constant review and not only changed when there are amendments to legislation or new laws impacting on the industry. There should be a review done every twelve months, six monthly preferably, and for each revision a "revision date" recorded at page 1 to show Fair Trading auditors that adequate supervision of the offices systems, policies and procedures is being done.
- 5. It is fine to have documented policies and procedures that staff have read, but it is just as important for them to be monitored to ensure staff are carrying out their duties as specified. This "supervision" monitoring needs also to be documented in the form of minutes in records of meetings- see Forms Section for Meeting Agendas.
- 6. The licencee must also ensure that staff are adequately trained in all aspects of their job(s), as without same they cannot be expected to comply with policies and procedures adequately.

INTRODUCTION

This Manual contains our Policies and Procedures its purpose is to inform staff about our office protocols and should be used as an important reference tool. The purpose of the Manual is to provide work operational guidelines for employees to follow

The Policies and Procedures in this Manual are to be adhered to at all times, and it is each employee's responsibility to ensure their compliance. Employees will be notified of changes that are made to the Manual when this occurs.

Management invites your comments and feedback on the Manual and its contents which are always welcome.

The content of this Manual forms part of the conditions of all staffs' employment, and the consequence of breaching a company policy or procedure will be treated seriously and action may include the termination of employment.

All staff are required to sign Forms 15 and 16 – refer Forms Section of the Manual.

The contents of the Manual are confidential. Employees are not to disclose it to or discuss it with any person other than those they work with.
